

Madeline Mann, NP

Additional Background

Madeline joins Timber Lane after over 26 years of pediatric practice. She graduated from Tufts University with a BS in child Development and Psychology. After working at children's Hospital in Boston, she went on to receive her RN and MSN as a Family Nurse Practitioner at Yale University in 1986. She has had the privilege of working in partnership with children and their families ever since. Madeline enjoys children of all ages, with special interest in prevention, adolescence and behavioral medicine. She also loves spending time with her family, traveling, and just about anything outdoors - running, skiing, biking, hiking or working in her gardens.
