

Michelle Perron, MD FAAP

Additional Background

Michelle Perron, MD. grew up in Montpelier, VT. After high school she attended Colby College in Waterville, Maine and graduated with a Degree in Biology. She then went on to medical school at the University of Vermont. Upon graduation, she moved to Worcester, MA. for a residency in pediatrics at the University of Massachusetts and stayed on to work for a year after completing her program. She has been practicing pediatrics in Burlington for the past 10 years. Cooking/baking, spending time outdoors and enjoying the company of her husband, family and pets are her favorite pastimes.