

Elizabeth Hunt, MD

Additional Background

Dr. Hunt, a native of New Jersey, completed her Pediatric Residency at UVM/Fletcher Allen Hospital. She and Dr Veit trained together. She studied Community Health at Brown University and then joined the Peace Corps. She served in rural Ecuador as a public health volunteer for two years. She has experience in immunization research, urban public health outreach and speaks near fluent Spanish. Dr Hunt has most recently been working at the Mayo Clinic in Minnesota in general practice and as a newborn hospitalist. She was staff physician at Woodside Juvenile Rehabilitation Center in Burlington, VT for two years. When able, she also volunteers in Haiti. Dr Hunt is particularly interest in Breastfeeding medicine, infectious disease, and children's mental health and wellness. She enjoys spending time with her husband, Jesse Moore, a surgeon at Fletcher Allen and their two young boys. She likes sailing, hiking and reading.